Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Official Form 106C*Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245 filing fee

$75 administrative fee

+ $15 trustee surcharge

$335 total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form —the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form— sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

---

$1,167	filing fee
+ $550	administrative fee
$1,717 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

$200	filing fee
+ $75	administrative fee
	$275 total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

$235	filing fee
+ $75	administrative fee
	$310 total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:

http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_form\_s.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc\_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Attorney reserves the right to withdraw from Client representation if, among other things, Client fails to honor the terms of this Agreement, including non-payment of Attorney and court filing fees; Client fails to cooperate or follow advice on a material matter, or if any fact or circumstance arises or is discovered that would render continuing representation unlawful or unethical. Client is aware of an ethical requirement imposed upon all Attorneys in this state. If a Client, in the course of representation by an Attorney, perpetrates a fraud upon any person or tribunal, the Attorney is obligated to call upon the Client to rectify the same. If the Client refuses or is unable to do so, the Attorney is required to reveal the fraud to the affected person or tribunal.

3. Since the outcome of negotiations and litigation is subject to factors which cannot always be foreseen, Client acknowledges and understands that Attorney has made no promises or guarantees to Client concerning the outcome and is unable do so. Nothing in this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee. Attorney cannot guarantee that Client will qualify for a Chapter 7.

4. Client agrees that Attorney may discard Client records after five (5) years of the completion of the Client's bankruptcy case.

5. Attorney shall provide Client with the following services:

- a. Review and analyze Client's financial circumstances based on information provided by Client.
- b. If possible and to the extent possible, based on the information provided by Client, advise Client of the Client's options, including but not limited to bankruptcy options.
- c. Inform Client what information Client needs to provide Attorney in order to allow Attorney to provide appropriate advice and option information, in the event such information Client provided is insufficient.

- e. Quote the Client an estimated fee, to the extent possible given the information provided by Client, for the Attorney's service relative to providing bankruptcy assistance or other legal services to Client.
- f. Assuming that a U.S. Bankruptcy proceeding is filed, Attorney services will include all typical Attorney required participation in such proceeding, including but not limited to, appearances at Court hearings, preparation of legal memoranda, and communication with opposing counsel and parties.
- g. If Clients proceeding requires additional, but not customary work, Attorney will inform Client directly, and enter into a separate written contract for such services to fully apprise Client of the fees, payment requirements, and expected services to be provided.

6. Client acknowledges his/her obligation to make full and complete disclosure of all assets and all liabilities, and to provide all documents and information requested by the Attorney, before the bankruptcy petition can be prepared and filed with the court including but not limited to the following:

- Full cooperation with the bankruptcy trustee appointed to oversee Client's case.
- If Client's case is selected for audit, Client must cooperate with the auditor.

- Completion of any reaffirmation agreement within 45 days after the date first scheduled for Client's first meeting of creditors.

7. In addition to the obligations and duties set forth in Paragraph 6; Client acknowledges that the following must be performed before eligibility for a Chapter 7 is determined:

"MEANS TEST" ANALYSIS

Before you can file a Chapter & case- and get a discharge of all your debts.

Congress requires that Client prove that Chapter 7 case is not an "abuse" of the bankruptcy system. People who make less than the median income for their family- size are not presumed to be abusing the system by filing Chapter 7. Attorney will still have to examine Client's budget of income and expenses to see if Client's case might be considered to be an abuse. People who have disposable income are supposed to file Chapter 13 cases in most instances.

People earning more than the median income are presumed to be abusing the bankruptcy system by filing Chapter 7 unless they pass the "means test". To determine whether Client passes the "means test", Attorney will complete a detailed analysis.

In order for Attorney to determine whether Client is eligible to file a Chapter 7 case, Attorney has to analyze and evaluate Client's financial situation. And in order to do this, Attorney is required to perform a "means test analysis". To do this, Client must provide the following documents to Attorney:

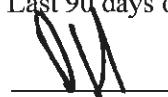

- Pay stubs or payment advices from Client's salaried employment for the past six months.
  - If Client has not been employed during this period, Client must give Attorney employment records including payments of unemployment benefits.
  - If Client is self-employed, Client must give Attorney evidence of Client's gross income and any business expenses deducted from Client's gross income for the past six months.
  - We must have records from the six month period before your filing date. If we have to redo your means test because your filing is delayed, we will charge additional fees.

If you earn less than the median income for a family size, you "pass" the means test without the need for additional analysis. However, if you make more than the median income, you must provide additional information for us to determine if you are eligible to file a Chapter 7 case.

Here is the data we absolutely need to perform the mandatory means test analysis as prescribed by Congress for those earning more than the median income. Please have it ready if we request it. Client may want to check-off each item as Client gathers and send his records.

- Last 90 days of bills that Client received from creditors regardless whether paid or not.
- Last 90 days of bank statements and check registers

- Documents regarding any sale or transfer of any property within the last 2 years
- Documents regarding any transfer or payments to relatives within the last 2 years
- Income Tax Returns for the past 3 years
- Copies of motor vehicle certificates of title
- Copies of mortgages recorded against Client's real estate
- Copies of any listing contracts for Client's real estate
- Copies of any pension plan, IRA or other retirement accounts and data concerning any withdrawals within the past 6 months
- Copies of life insurance policies Client currently owns, practically with cash surrender value
- Copies of any pleadings for any lawsuit involving Client
- Copies of any financing documents for any refinancing or non-purchase money, second or third mortgage loans obtained within the last 3 years
- Copies of most recent bills on mortgages, auto loan, life and health insurance policies
- Records of actual medical expenses during the past six months
- Records of tuition for private or parochial school paid during the six months
- Records concerning charitable contributions given during the past six months
- Records concerning internet or telecommunication expenses during the past six months
- Records concerning child support or alimony support paid or received during the past six months

Please provide all this information to our office as soon as possible. Attorney cannot even begin to work on Client's bankruptcy petition, statement of financial affairs, or filing until we have completed the "means test analysis." That's because Attorney can't determine Client's bankruptcy eligibility until completion of the "means test".

Once Attorney has completed the means test, Client and Attorney want to get the case filed as soon as possible because the "means test" accounts for Client's situation during the most recent six months. If another month passes, the original means test analysis is no longer valid. Attorney will have to do it again taking into account Client's income and expenses for the most recent month.

In addition, Attorney can't file Client's bankruptcy petition until Client has paid Attorney in full under this Agreement. If Client is not paid in full then any balance owed to Attorney will be discharged in the bankruptcy and can potentially cause a conflict of interest since Attorney has become a creditor of the Clients.

7. Client acknowledges that passing the "means test" does not guarantee that Client will receive a discharge. Client acknowledges that the US Trustee can file a motion to dismiss even though Client has passed the means test if the US Trustee believes the case is abusive under the "totality of circumstances" test. Attorney will exert his best efforts to avoid such a motion but does not guarantee that such a motion will not be filed. Client acknowledges that the cost of defending against such motion is $275/hr.

8. Client acknowledges that he/she must attend pre-petition credit counseling before the bankruptcy petition can be filed. Client understands that he/she must also attend post-petition counseling after the bankruptcy petitions is filed and within the time frame allowed by statute. Client acknowledges that the bankruptcy cannot be filed without the certificate of completion of the pre-bankruptcy credit counseling. Client understands that no discharge of debts will be issued if the post-bankruptcy credit counseling is not completed within the statutory time frame.

9. Sending or receiving any summons or complaint, or notifying the Attorney of a pending lawsuit does not obligate the Attorney to represent Client in that lawsuit or before that court. Any representation of Client in a state court proceeding, including without limitation: collection lawsuits, foreclosure lawsuits, and etc., is not included in this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement. Any referral made to another Attorney to represent Client is a courtesy only. The Attorney is not associated with any other Attorney outside of the undersigned Attorney's law offices.

10. Client acknowledges that the Attorney will not research creditor information, inclnding addresses, account numbers, or balances. The Client must provide this information to the Attorney in writing. Failure to do so may result in unscheduled debts subject to non-dischargeability. Attorney will obtain a credit report for the Client but shall not be held accountable for any debts not listed on the Client's credit report. Client acknowledges duty to disclose ALL liabilities and debts. In the event Client forgets a creditor and the case is filed, Attorney will file an amended schedule to include the omitted creditor for a fee of $100.

11. Client agrees that the following matters are not included within the scope of this Bankruptcy Retainer Agreement. - k. Debts owed for death or personal injury arising from the operation of a motor vehicle, boat, or aircraft while intoxicated by drugs or alcohol.

13. Client understands that filing a Chapter 7 bankruptcy does not automatically discharge or remove liens from any real estate. Client agrees that the Attorney will not take any action to avoid (remove) any lien on real estate in a Chapter 7 unless Client specifically authorizes the Attorney to do so in writing. Client agrees that the Attorney will rely on Client's statements concerning ownership of real property and any liens attached to Client's real property. Client agrees that no real estate title search will be conducted. Client agrees that Attorney will not conduct a public records search for lawsuits filed against Client or judgments granted against Client. Client must separately order and pay for a real estate title search, or public records search for lawsuits or judgments, if Client wishes to obtain one. Client
